

Montessori Middle School Lead Teacher
Cambridge Montessori School

Cambridge Montessori School, founded in 1963, currently serves 150 students from toddler through 8th grade. We are seeking a passionate and dedicated Montessori Adolescent Lead Guide to join our vibrant community. The Adolescent Lead Teacher will work with students in the Adolescent Program (ages 12-15), supporting their intellectual, social, and emotional growth in a respectful and individualized learning environment. This role emphasizes fostering independence, critical thinking, and the development of life skills while adhering to Montessori principles and methods. The ideal candidate will be committed to nurturing students' holistic development and guiding them in the transition to adulthood within a supportive, hands-on learning environment.

As an urban school, our adolescents take advantage of access to internships, community projects, and partnerships with local businesses and institutions, thereby enhancing the relevance of their studies. Access to public transit and the walkability of our neighborhood support the students' need for independence. We place a strong focus on community service, culminating in student capstone projects that make a lasting impact. Our program also highlights the interconnections between local and global societies through our production/exchange and entrepreneurship components.

Qualifications:

- Montessori Adolescent (12-15) AMI or AMS Certification or willingness to enroll in a qualified Montessori adolescent training program.
- Bachelor's degree in Education or a related field.
- Previous experience working with adolescents in a Montessori environment preferred.
- Strong understanding of Montessori adolescent philosophy and curriculum.
- Exceptional communication, organizational, and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to foster a positive, inclusive, and respectful learning environment.
- A passion for working with and supporting adolescents' growth and independence.
- Ability to communicate effectively with parent community.
- Collaborative and team-oriented mindset with a willingness to share ideas and strategies.

Cambridge Montessori School provides a competitive salary and benefits package.
